

House Bill 883

By: Representatives Butler of the 18th and Borders of the 175th

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT

To amend Chapter 12 of Title 16 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to offenses against public health and morals, so as to expand the exception to the misdemeanor of tattooing near the eye when performed by an osteopath or a person under the general supervision of a licensed physician or osteopath who is within a certain location at the time of the procedure; to provide for related matters; to provide an effective date; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF GEORGIA:

SECTION 1.

Chapter 12 of Title 16 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to offenses against public health and morals, is amended by striking Code Section 16-12-5, relating to tattooing any person near his or her eye, in its entirety and inserting in its place the following:

"16-12-5.

(a) As used in this Code section, the term 'tattoo' means to mark or color the skin of any person by pricking in, inserting, or implanting pigments, ~~except when performed by a physician licensed as such pursuant to Chapter 34 of Title 43.~~

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person, except a physician or osteopath licensed under Chapter 34 of Title 43 or a person acting under the general supervision of such licensed physician or osteopath who is located within the facility or an adjacent facility where the procedure is being performed at the time the procedure is being performed, to tattoo the body of any person within any area within one inch of the nearest part of the eye socket of such person. Any person who violates this Code section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $500.00."
